  - You will have 2 weeks from the day you book to have all paperwork and entry fee paid. We will give you one courteous phone call.
  - If you don't call into scratch your spot you will still be charged the entry fee.

If you miss the deadline of September 12th we still accept horses to go in our "After Catalogue Sale". Friday September 27th is a catalogued only sale, the "After Catalogue" horses will sell after the catalogued horses on Saturday ONLY. To book your horse in it will be a first come first serve for lot numbers. On the day of the sale go to the main office to submit all necessary paperwork and pay the entry fee.

When you arrive at the market, bring your horse to the north side of the building (green hi-hog chutes). Your horse will need to "check in" the brand inspectors will inspect your horse and our staff will assign you a stall and put the assigned lot number on your horse(s). We supply hay but please bring your own water bucket. You will need to sell your horse with a halter and lead shank that will stay with the horse.
