Buddy, Been there done that gelding. Used the last 7 years as a lease horse. He as made countless long days moving cows, checking fence, doctoring etc. Has been tied off on (used for one and 2 man doctoring) Has had a treatment gun shot off him. Neck reins, moves off leg ,very cowy and keenly tracks when you put him on a cow. Goes out alone but can act herd bound in a group and has thrown attitude about leaving other horses on these occasions he has bucked. Easy to catch and has good ground manners, stands tied, good with feet, loads and trailers without hesitation.

This mare we have owned for 3 years. She has been used at the market chasing cattle up and down the alleys for 3 fall runs. I have pulled calves to branding fire with her, sorted pairs, checked pasture on her. But for the last year she was only used at the market. When she isnt rode down she has some spunk so an intermediate rider would be best.

JANGO

We purchased this horse last fall and he was used for one season at the market. He seemed to be one of the favourites that everyone wanted to ride. One down fall about him is he gets sore on the concrete, the only reason why he is for sale. Very gentle and kind.

Grade Sorrel Mare DOB: 2010

Lady

Lady is 12-year-old Belgium mare. Lady has only been driven with a partner, never single and appears to prefer the left side when hitched. Lady is good for the farrier, loads and trailer well. Lady is a little more laid back than Ruby however will maintain a pace with Ruby. Lady can be a bit skeptical about being caught but once she knows and trust, is okay. Lady is also up to date with her vaccinations and deworming. Both Lady and Ruby stand well for harnessing.

Lady and Ruby have had the pleasure of providing many children and families rides at various charity events including the Children's Wish Foundation charity. They have been driven around moving and passing vehicles without incident.

RUBY & LADY SELL TOGETHER AS A PACKAGE DEAL WITH HARNESS AND WAGON. Wagon has new axles, wheels, tires, tongue, eveners, neck yoke etc.

Grade Bay Mare DOB: 2004

Ruby

Ruby is an 18-year-old Clydesdale/ Hackney Crossed Carriage Mare. Ruby drives single or as a team on either side. She is good for the farrier, loads and trailers well. Ruby has plenty of energy and loves to pull the buggy at a smooth quick pace. Ruby has been in parades and has primarily been used as a carriage /wagon horse. Ruby is up to date with her vaccinations and deworming. Ruby is easy to catch especially once she knows and trust you. Ruby sells with her partner 12-year-old Lady.

Both Lady and Ruby stand well for harnessing. Lady and Ruby have had the pleasure of providing many children and families rides at various charity events including the Children's Wish Foundation charity. They have been driven around moving and passing vehicles without incident.

RUBY & LADY SELL TOGETHER AS A PACKAGE DEAL WITH HARNESS AND WAGON. Wagon has new axles, wheels, tires, tongue, eveners, neck yoke etc.
